Determination

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission determines,² pursuant to section 735(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673d(b)) (the Act), that an industry in the United States is not materially injured or threatened with material injury, and the establishment of an industry in the United States is not materially retarded, by reason of imports from China, Indonesia, Slovakia, and Taiwan of certain cold-rolled steel products that have been found by the Department of Commerce to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (LTFV).

Background

The Commission instituted these investigations effective June 2, 1999, following receipt of petitions filed with the Commission and the Department of Commerce by Bethlehem Steel Corporation (Bethlehem, PA); U.S. Steel Group (Pittsburgh, PA); Ispat Inland, Inc. Notice of the scheduling of the Commission's investigations and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of December 1, 1999 (64 FR 67307). The hearing was held in Washington, DC, on January 20, 2000, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

[Investigation No. 731–TA–697 (Review)]

Pure Magnesium From Russia

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Termination of five-year review.

SUMMARY: The subject five-year review was initiated in April 2000 to determine whether revocation of the existing antidumping duty order on pure magnesium from Russia would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and of material injury to a domestic industry. On July 7, 2000, the Department of Commerce published notice that it was revoking the order “[b]ecause no domestic party responded to the sunset review notice of initiation by the applicable deadline” (65 FR 41944). Accordingly, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930

¹ The record is defined in sec. 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 207.2(f)).
